About Us

In 2016, fifteen daughters of Neni town in Anaocha local government area (LGA) in Anambra State of Nigeria, residing in the United States of America, being perceptive of our responsibilities as “Umuada and Umuokpu” citizens and desiring to promote our Igbo heritage, improve our community in economic, social, political, and other realms do hereby organize ourselves as Umuokpu Neni Organization in Diaspora (UNO). Thus our motto: “ACHIEVE THE JOY OF SISTERHOOD”.

Our Mission

Our mission is to provide career development opportunities, mentoring, healthcare awareness, and other strategic alliances for the youth and women in the under-served communities.

Our Vision

UNOID aims to empower the youth and women in the under-served communities by providing resources for quality education and good health while advancing their socio-economic status.

To Donate and support our cause please go to our website: <http://www.unoid.org/unoid-payment-zone>

Our Purpose

To provide a forum for daughters of Neni Town in Anaocha LGA to communicate and exchange ideas for the improvement of their communities through social networking and charitable ventures.

Programs We Provide

UNOID offers a broad range of programs intended to improve the quality of life of underprivileged youth, women, and children. Through our programs, we aim to:

- Promote networking, cooperation, and understanding among daughters of Neni Town in Anaocha LGA, Anambra State.
- Promote Igbo heritage and culture in the United States.
- Promote quality education, scholarships, health, and overall welfare, and economic advancement of citizens of Neni Town, Anaocha LGA, Anambra State, Nigeria.
- Liaise, collaborate, and partner with other Organizations with similar missions.

Membership in the Association is open to eligible adult female Neni citizens from the age of thirty or after marriage, and living in abroad.

Membership Benefits

When you become a member of UNOID, here are some of the benefits that you can gain:

- The joy of using our talents/skills to serve humanity
- Sisterhood and networking with Neni women and Other women around the world
- Biennial Annual retreat for members
